

WAR PARLIAMENT OPENED BY KING GEORGE

Dixmude Captured by Germans

CONFLICT IS RESUMED ON WEST FRONT

NEW ATTACK OF GERMANS MAY BE TURNING POINT

The German war machine has battered its way into the Belgian town of Dixmude. Today's official French statement contains the admission that the allies were obliged to fall back from this point of vantage in the great battle for possession of the eastern shore of the British channel. As an offset, the French war office states that the allies' forces have advanced along the North sea coast, pushing back the Germans and taking Tombaert, a small Belgian town a few miles northeast of Nieuport.

The warring nations awaited with keen suspense the outcome of the struggle in Belgium, which for the moment overshadows the conflicts on the many other fields of battle. From no other point came reports of important changes in the situation.

The capture of Dixmude was the first indication that the new attack of the Germans, described as their supreme effort and as probably marking a turning point in the war, had brought definite results. Between Dixmude and Ypres, which lies to the south close to the French border, the fighting has been most intense since the Germans elected at the opening of the week to begin the new onslaught with the help of their reinforcements of fresh troops and new artillery.

On October 13, during the advance on Ostend, the Germans occupied Dixmude, but later were compelled to fall back. The allies gained possession of the town temporarily, but their presence there was challenged repeatedly by the Germans, resulting in some of the most important and sanguinary fighting of the war. Whether the German victory will exert an important influence on the outcome is not as yet decided.

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 11, 1:33 p. m.—The hundredth day of the war, which engages virtually half the world, both in respect to land area and population, finds the belligerent allies practically on the defensive, according to opinions expressed today by English students of the situation, at least temporarily, in both main areas of hostilities. This role is perhaps more pronounced in the eastern field of operation, where the Germans have been thrown well back behind their own frontier lines at several points in East Prussia and Posen, than in the western field, where, although the successes of the past two weeks have enabled the forces of Great Britain, France and Belgium to inaugurate a vigorous offensive, the Germans are still disputing every foot of ground with bloody hand-to-hand fighting, which is proving more deadly than has any previous phase of this most sanguinary war.

The names of some towns and villages appearing with monotonous regularity day after day in the official reports show how stubborn has been the struggle in the country centering around Ypres.

DIXMUDE TAKEN BY GERMANS.

By Associated Press.

PARIS, Nov. 11, 2:50 p. m.—The French official statement this afternoon says that the fighting was resumed yesterday morning with very great severity between Nieuport and the Lys. The French forces generally were successful in maintaining their front, but it is admitted that the Germans toward the end of the day succeeded in taking possession of Dixmude. The British troops are described as having repulsed the enemy at several points. At other points on the line the French claim slight progress. The text of the statement follows:

"On our left wing the fighting was resumed yesterday morning between Nieuport and the Lys, with a very great degree of severity.

"Generally speaking our front was maintained in spite of the violence and the strength of the German attacks directed against certain of our points of support.

"To the north of Nieuport we were even able to reoccupy Tombaert and advance beyond this town, but toward the end of the day the Germans succeeded in taking Dixmude. We still hold

Sculptor's Gifts Are Tribute to Heroes

LONDON, Nov. 11.—The Times today announces that Auguste Rodin, the eminent French sculptor, has presented to the English nation a collection of a score of fine sculptures, representing every period of Rodin's genius, as a token of his admiration of the English heroes who are fighting side by side with their French brethren.

In a statement published in the Times, M. Rodin declares that for years he has been an admirer of England and he regards the entire between England and France as an example for the world. He also says that it has been suggested to him that he should execute a sculpture to symbolize British heroism, and he may develop that idea.

Bomb Hurler From Aeroplane Kills Boy

LONDON, Nov. 11.—An Amsterdam dispatch to the Reuters Telegram Company says that the Dutch newspapers confirm the statement that Germany is transferring cavalry and artillery from the western to the eastern frontier.

An aviator threw bombs at Blankenberge Monday, according to the same dispatch, with the intention of dispersing the German troops marching to Brussels. One fell in the town and killed a boy. The Germans have destroyed the pier and promenade at Blankenberge.

Pope Would Initiate Peace Negotiations

LONDON, Nov. 11, 10:20 p. m.—Telegraphing from Copenhagen, a correspondent of the Central News says:

"A dispatch received here from Cologne affirms that the Pope shows a desire to initiate negotiations for peace through the medium of a pastoral letter.

"The German view of this is that any such action by His Holiness would raise the question of the Pope's temporal power and force him into taking an attitude against the proposal."

Snow Impedes Moving of German Artillery

GENEVA, via Paris, Nov. 11.—A heavy snow has fallen in the Vosges mountains and the Black Forest. The Germans are said to have had great difficulty in removing their reserve field artillery from defensive positions on the heights into the valleys. Their removal is considered in some quarters here to indicate that the army is preparing for a retreat.

SHORT WAR, PREDICTS ASQUITH

Patriotism Shown by Populace at Parliament Opening

Officials to Be Questioned on Conduct of War

By Associated Press.

LONDON, Nov. 11, 5:43 p. m.—Premier Asquith stated in the House of Commons today that he doubted that the war would last as long as people had originally predicted.

Speaking in the House of Commons on the address in reply to the throne, A. Bonar Law promised the government the unflinching support of the opposition in prosecuting the war. The opposition leader said:

"We stand in a better position now than at the outbreak of the war. The only chance for victory of Germany was that she should win before the resources of the allies were available. She has failed, and failed on both fronts."

Bonar Law emphasized the importance of the financial position, and said that already the effects were being felt in Germany. This was shown by the rate of exchange, and this would become more evident as time progressed. As soon as Germany realized that she must be beaten, he declared, economic forces would work with a pressure of which there was no conception.

The leader of the opposition, who is a British naval officer, went to Antwerp, the first of the admiralty, Winston Spencer Churchill accompanied a military expedition instead of Field Marshal Earl Kitchener, minister of war, and he is more about the naval disaster off the Chilean coast.

PARLIAMENT OPENS.

LONDON, Nov. 11, 2:25 p. m.—Londoners who recently have been deprived of all spectacular incidents today thronged the route of the royal procession to Westminster Palace, where King George opened Parliament, and a wave of patriotic cheering followed the King and Queen from the start to the finish of their drive. Their majesties rode in a less conspicuous state leaves carriage, drawn by six black horses, instead of the gold and black chariot heretofore used.

The scene within the House of Lords was hardly so picturesque as usual. The court is in mourning for Prince Maurice of Battenberg, and large numbers of aristocrats who customarily fill the upper chamber on these occasions, are now mourning for husbands and sons fallen in the war, while somber khaki to a large extent displaced the brilliant military uniforms usually present.

SPEECH FROM THRONE.

In a speech from the throne at the opening of Parliament King George said:

"My Lords and Gentlemen: The energies and sympathies of my subjects in every part of the empire are concentrated on the prosecution to a victorious issue of the war in which we are engaged. I have summoned you now to order that, sharing as I am aware you do, my continuation, and supreme importance you should take whatever steps are needed for its adequate discharge."

WAR AREA ENLARGED.

"Since I last addressed you the area of the war has been enlarged by the participation in the struggle of the Ottoman empire. In conjunction with my allies, and in spite of repeated and continuous provocations, I strove to preserve in regard to Turkey a friendly neutrality. Bad council and alien influence have driven her into a policy of wanton and defiant aggression, and a state of war now exists between us."

FOUR GERMAN SHIPS OF WAR SIGHTED OFF COAST OF CHILE

By Associated Press.

LIMA, Peru, Nov. 11.—A telegram from Talca, Chile, says that a steamer arriving there reports that when off Coquimbo, Chile, she sighted four German warships steaming north.

Coquimbo is about 300 miles south of Talca, and allowing for the time of the steamer's passage between the two ports, the warships may have been seen on Saturday or Sunday. Coquimbo is about 450 miles north of Coronel, off which the naval engagement of November 1 was fought.

OLDFIELD IS BEATEN

Nikrent Wins Los Angeles-Phoenix Race When Opponent Breaks Down.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Nikrent, No. 8, reached the finish of the 673-mile Los Angeles-Phoenix race at 3:59. Barney Oldfield, leader all the way from Los Angeles, broke down at Glendale, nine miles from the finish.

FLOODS GIVE TROUBLE.

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Three of the eleven cars in the 673-mile Los Angeles-Phoenix race were within ninety miles of the finish at noon. These were Barney Oldfield, No. 5; Nikrent, No. 8, and Bramlette, No. 19. Flooded arroyos and rivers were giving the racers much trouble. Davis, No. 4, was second out of Phoenix, but had not been heard from at Glendale, thirty-three miles from Prescott, at noon.

Daniels Positive That Battleship Is Safe

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Secretary Daniels was emphatic today in replying to anxious relatives of the officers and men of the cruiser North Carolina, which it was indefinitely rumored, had met with a mishap in the Mediterranean. Daniels told inquiries that while he had no official word from the cruiser, he felt positive she had not been harmed. He explained that if she had encountered an accident the department would have been advised before this time either by its own representatives or State Department officials near Beirut.

The navy bureau of operations sought today to get into communication with both the North Carolina and the Tennessee. Early in the month the North Carolina was at Beirut and the Tennessee was at Mytilene, off the Greek coast.

Nephew of Roseberry Killed in Action

LONDON, Nov. 11.—Lord Roseberry, the former Premier, speaking at a meeting in Edinburgh yesterday, said he had just received news that his nephew, Colonel W. R. Wyndham, had been killed in action.

The Express states that Captain Pleshkov, the famous Russian horseman, who won the King Edward cup at the international horse show at London, has been badly wounded in battle near Warsaw.

TO-DAY'S WAR DEVELOPMENTS

By Associated Press.

The French official statement contains the admission that the Germans have captured Dixmude, near the Belgian coast.

Along the remainder of the battle line, says the French war office, there is no change, except for slight progress by the allies at a few points. The Berlin view of the situation, however, is optimistic. Comment is made there of the use of the expression "good advances" in the latest official German reports concerning the fighting in the west, being the first occasion on which such terms have been employed in this connection.

Paris also is hopeful as to the outcome in Belgium. Military critics there are of the view that the Germans are faced with the imperative necessity of defeating the allies in order that they may turn their attention to the menacing armies of Russia. The German Crown Prince is reported to have been placed in supreme command of the German and Austrian forces in the east.

Petrograd contradicts the German claim to an important victory along the northern border, asserting that a

CLASH WITH CARRANZA EXPECTED

Officials Intimate That First Chief Will Yield to Delegates

U. S. Asked to Set Date for Evacuation of Vera Cruz

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Administration officials eagerly awaited news today of the sequel to the expiration of the Aguas Calientes ultimatum, which ordered General Carranza to surrender executive power in Mexico to Eulalio Gutierrez. The ultimatum expired last night, and while official news was lacking, Mexico City dispatches said it was reported Villa's advance guard was marching southward on its way to the capital.

If fighting occurred, it was said, the first clash between those troops and the army of General Pablo Gonzalez, who is loyal to Carranza, probably would take place at Queretaro. General Carranza, the dispatches added, had deposed generals commanding 50,000 men because they refused to nullify their agreement to abide by the Aguas Calientes decision.

GUARANTEES GIVEN.

News reports from Mexico City that the Carranza government had asked the United States to fix a definite date for the evacuation of Vera Cruz had not been verified early today by official advice. It had been generally understood that the troops would not be withdrawn until the situation pending between Carranza and the Aguas Calientes convention had been settled. Carranza according to a telegram received in Mexico City from his foreign minister, has granted all the American government's requests for guarantees at Vera Cruz.

In administration circles today there was a feeling that eventually Carranza would yield to the convention. However, that was based more on the intimations in recent official reports than on advice received in the twenty-four hours.

The convention notified Carranza that it intended to inaugurate Gutierrez upon the expiration of the ultimatum, and that persons who did not recognize him would be considered in revolt against the constituted government.

EVACUATION AGREED ON.

American troops probably will be ordered out of Vera Cruz very soon, leaving the Mexican factions to settle their own differences, as a result of the recent developments which have brought the guarantees the Murder Charge Will Be Dismissed Against Suspected Couple in Nelms Mystery.

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 11.—The charges of murder against Victor Innis and his wife here for the alleged deaths of Miss Beatrice Nelms and Mrs. Elsie Dennis, sisters of Atlanta, Ga., will be dismissed Monday. District Attorney Linden announced in court today.

Hinted That Heredity May Have Caused Artistic Temperament.

Imagery of the Orient, expressed in the art of the West, has produced in the Oakland High School a conventional Christmas card, the handiwork of Miss Eva Fong, a descendant of the flowery kingdom, of such surpassing beauty that it has been officially adjudged the finest product of the numerous and highly instructed class in drawing.

No less an authority than Prof. F. H. Meyer, formerly of the University of California faculty, now director of arts in the public schools, sat as judge. Associated with him was Miss Mary Sellander, teacher of drawing. The pictures which they examined represented the most advanced work of the schools, and over all time amateur artists whose work was submitted the little Chinese girl has been triumphant.

Dr. Blackburn Dies of Heart Disease

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Dr. Daniel A. Blackburn, Pescadero dentist and former supervisor of San Mateo county, died at midnight at St. Mary's Hospital from heart trouble.

His wife, who became reconciled to him when he was stricken ill and withdrew her divorce suit after he had been taken to the hospital, was at his bedside when death came. Other relatives also were present.

Last evening Dr. Blackburn was taken to the hospital in a critical condition, and the physicians held out little hope for his recovery, though he lived from three to four days.

As soon as he became conscious of the seriousness of his illness he sent for his wife and children, and they were with him until his death. His death was a great loss to the community.

Prisoner Admits He Visited Slain Man

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—After enduring a grueling torturous examination of the detectives for two weeks, a man named James A. Jones, who was charged with the murder of the late Louis A. Adams, a prominent San Francisco banker, admitted today that he had visited the slain man.

Jones, who is now in the city jail, was taken to the police station today and confessed that he had been in the company of Adams at the time of his death. He also admitted that he had been in the company of Adams at the time of his death.

HONOR DEAD BARD ON NATAL DAY

"The Hights" Scene of Memorial Exercises for Late Joaquin Miller.

Behind him lay the gray Azores,
behind the gates of Hercules;
Before him not the ghosts of shores, only the shoreless seas.
The words echoed and died away in the great spaces of The Hights, and the small group of visitors, crowded closer together, warmed by a sudden sense of communion with the spirit of the dead poet as his wife, standing on the steps of the Abbey, where he lived for more than twenty-five years, recited some of his most beautiful verse.
For yesterday was Joaquin Miller's birthday, and "The Hights" was perhaps a scene of more joyous animation than ever since his death. For to do him honor and reverence the Joaquin Miller Club, presided over by Dr. Minora Kibbe, made the trip to "The Hights," some on foot, others on horseback, or in a large stage. Easter luncheons were eaten among the trees that he had planted with such loving care, and later the little band led by Mrs. Miller, walked down the narrow paths and the crumbling wooden steps to the Abbey, where Miller lived until within two years of his death.
For nearly two hours she read the poems, since grown famous throughout America and Europe.
And it was here that he lived for over twenty-five years, here in this little cabin, with the white paint pealing in grayed flakes from the walls and the naive little windows of cheap stained glass, and the curious symbols of alien faiths, surrounded by the cross, as the symbol, to him at any rate, of the ultimate Truth.

In the distance massed the 75,000 trees which he planted, and high above the cross in trees, too, and beyond on the bare hillside rose the monuments in stone which he had erected with his own hands, one to Christ, one to Moses, a third to Fremont, and the last his own funeral pyre, whence his ashes were scattered to the elements that he might become again a part of the seas and clouds and mountains he so loved.

After the reading all were at liberty to wander through the grounds, and up into the small cabin, now belonging to his daughter, where he died. The room is being kept as he left it. On the bed lies his funeral wreath, and the walls are lined with pictures of him from the time he was a young man to within a month of his death. Even his clothes are being kept, the huge boots, the brown corduroy coat, the famous sombrero, which caused such excitement in the English court, and the old saddle bag, in which for years he brought up his provisions from the low-lying town.

A plan is now under way for buying the entire property for a memorial park, and to this end everything is being kept intact, just as it was at the time of Miller's death.

"We feel that this should be done,"
said Mrs. Miller yesterday. "Each month visitors are becoming more frequent. Just one day of all last year we were quite alone. One woman came from New York, visited 'The Hights' and returned home; it was all she wanted to see. Another man, an Englishman, had just two days in California before sailing for the Orient and one of them he spent here. So you see the interest people are taking is genuine and real."

HALL IS ART TREASURY WELFARE HOME FOR HEIRESS FREES FANCY GIRLS IS PLANNED

MRS. ANITA BALDWIN McCLAU GHEY, WHO HAS REARED A STATEFUL MANSION NEAR SIERRA MADRE.

MANSION IS MADE SHRINE FOR ART

Maynard Dixon Frieze Adorns Walls of Magnificent Home.

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11.—On the Foothill boulevard in the borders of the Sierra Madre, most picturesque region of all Southern California, Mrs.
Anita Baldwin McClaughey, daughter and heiress of E. J. "Lucky" Baldwin, has reared a mansion, opened today,
in which repose art treasures of the Orient and of Europe, and above them all the latest work of Maynard Dixon,
a native painter of California.

The dwelling is surrounded by other splendid homes. It is perhaps the most costly of all in the group. It is certainly the most luxurious, for it contains the Baldwin millions at her command the heiress has indulged her exotic tastes to the full.

In one wing of the great house she has her music room, a studio for composing and in need a concert room and place for balls.

Dixon has painted the friezes for the "Jinks" room and for the Indian hall. Some of his work later perhaps will adorn the music room. It is this room which compels interest of tourists more than any other, for Mrs.
McClaughey has already provided herself a person of talent. Her museum for Richard Walton Tully's
"Omar the Tentmaker" won praise as high as the play itself.

No more appropriate frame for a big bit of art could be found than the McClaughey home. The house is in proportions and design an alluring example of classical simplicity with a touch of the mission modifications of the Moorish. The beauty of the appointments of the rooms is remarkable, and all are adorned with paintings by noted artists, only two being foreign, for the owner by a just combination of patriotic ardor and good taste finds ample supply of the best of art from native sources.

COMMANDING FRIEZE.
The first seen as the house is entered is what may be termed an interior hall.

This is a severely designed anteroom just off the entrance vestibule.
The eye is at once commanded by the boldness of the frieze.

Facing you is a wide panel showing a craggy space with prairie be-ond,
on the apex of the foreground an immense eagle is on the point of alighting with graceful stretched pinions.

On the left is a war party of Sioux Indians, in the center a nude white girl captive, astride a cayuse. Squaws ride in front and behind come a group of war-bonneted warriors, a suggestion a home going after a raid with the savage tragedy of these old events eloquently sung of the desperate figure of the white girl.

PICTURED STAIRCASE.
To the right, stairs lead to the lower floor. Little decorative suggestions of themes of Alaskan Indian origin are worked into the paneling preparing for the bowing alley, in which the same theme is carried through in every detail; and from this you enter the "Jinks" room, where Dixon's frieze at once captures attention.

The figures are redolent of merriment. They are all of the pre-crusade costume, conveying much of the fantastic legendary quality of England at that time. These, graceful figures of fairies mingle with cowed
monks, jesters with cap and bell, gnomes and piques. A jovial, rubicund, Palestinian figure can be seen lurking,
a solemn-faced nun to smile, while the grinning gnomes tug at her precise skirts. Fools caper in the procession of good humor, slender suggestions of Queen Mab's glow rosily through the tones of dusty turquoise which dominate the entire room, and everywhere the gaze wanders there is smiling to be seen a general radiation of jolly humors in every corner.

THIS TRIUMPH

Dixon made several designs in sketch form for Mrs. McClaughey's selection before he began his task.
She selected the one mentioned and said then that if it carried out its promise in beauty of color and form when completed a sum amounting to a considerable bonus would be added to the price. Dixon was given the additional sum with eagerness.

A peculiarly warm note of commending color tone is given to the "Jinks" room by the placing in front of the large fireplace of two mammoth bowl-vases of the Ming dynasty, of priceless worth. These vases, while Oriental, of course, are of the same delicacy of coloring that marks every other detail, and while of a grandeur
and type befitting a public building,
such as the temple they once decorated, blend happily with the rest.

The Kensington museum authorities of London tried to buy one of these bowl-vases before the fell to Mrs. Mc-Claughey, but could not raise the staggering sum at which they were held.

FINDS BARBARY COAST RESORT IN FULL BLAST

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Joseph
Murphy, secretary to Chief of Police White, is a quiet citizen who looks not the least bit like a police officer. Murphy is not a member of the department holding a purely appointive position, but nevertheless his chance visit to the restaurant of Andrew Musante, 120 Columbus avenue, at an early hour this morning, may result in somebody losing a valuable license. The Barbary coast is supposed to be closed, Murphy found it open. Following an auto ride with a party of friends, he entered the cafe soon after midnight. He was surprised to see dancing going on. With his friends he ordered drinks and got another surprise when they were served.
He said nothing, but this morning Captain of Police Gleason was instructed to prefer charges against Musante before the Board of Police Commissioners. If the accusations prove correct, the restaurant proprietor is guilty of two offenses—permitting dancing and selling liquor without meals. It is likely to go hard with him by reason of the strict regulation in vogue in the old Tenderloin house.

RAID LOTTERY HOUSE

An alleged Chinese lottery resort was raided by the police last night at 1575 Seventh street and Chin Chung was arrested there for violating the city ordinance. He was released on $50 bail. The following men were arrested in the street for having lottery tickets in their possession, or in the lottery house as visitors, and were released on $10 bail each: A. R. To-fani, Edward Neff, Michael Tirpo, Victor Aulin, Albert Stern, Clifford Sheppard, Ah Sing, Ah Quong, Man-nial, Lucar, Lieutenant Haynes, Henry Dismal, William Subl, Charles Booker and Carl Kyneson.

The arrests were made by Patrolmen Petersen, Gannaw, Rossick, Bannister, Coley, Tusher and Rumetsch.

WANTED IN UTAH

Robert L. Mayock, a salesman living at 545 Merrimac street, was arrested today by Inspectors Emigh and Neils of the Oakland Police Department on a felony charge of passing a fictitious check. The arrest was made at the request of the Utah police, who hold a warrant for Mayock. He will be taken to that city for trial.

TRUNK LOOTED OF $98

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Miss
T. Russell of the Grand Union Hotel, Kearny and California streets, left her room for a few moments at midnight and returned to find her trunk broken open and $98 in coin stolen.

Women Urge Refuge for Those Stranded as Social Service Work.

To discuss the need of a Welfare Home in Oakland for girls a meeting called by Mrs. Sarah C. Borland and attended by women actively interested in social service work, was held yesterday afternoon at the Chamber of Commerce. The office of such a home would be to provide a living place for low-salaried working girls and women and a safe shelter for those who are temporarily stranded.

Agreement was general that some provision must be made of this kind, as at present there is no place where respectable girls are received without money.
Accommodations for the fallen, also, are too limited.

"Next year a vast influx of unprotected women with but slight funds will come to the lure of California. We believe that a police or prevention is better than rescue afterwards," stated Mrs.
M. A. McKenzie, the organizer of the Welfare Home in San Francisco. "However, we wish a home from which no woman
would be turned away."

Mrs. Borland, speaking of the necessity for meeting the situation, advised investigation as to whether any institution already established could conduct this work without taxing the community more heavily.

Y. W. C. A. WORK.

"If the Young Women's Christian Association, for instance, could co-operate in connection with other organizations in looking after stranded women free of charge, the necessity of a welfare home would be obviated," she said.

Others who gave reasons from their experience as to the urgency of the situation were Mrs. Ida S. Cook, for many years connected with the San Francisco Florence Crittenton Home; Mrs. Eva Brand, matron of the Nazarene Rescue Home on Thirteenth avenue, and Mrs. M. A. Mc-Kenzie. All asserted that the Young Women's Christian Association does not assume the cases they were considering.

To decide whether co-operation or the establishment of a separate institution would best solve the problem, Mrs. Borland appointed a committee of Mrs.
Arthur Thompson, Mrs. L. C. Grasser,
Mrs. Eva Brand, Mrs. J. A. Colquhoun and Mrs. M. A. McKenzie to confer with Miss Grace Fisher of the Young Women's Christian Association, and Mrs. L. P.
Crane, chairman of the Alameda County
Travelers' Aid Society.

"When my boy, Ray, was small he was

May Assign Cannon to Former Committee

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Former Speaker Cannon who will return to Congress next March, may be assigned to the appropriations committee of which he was chairman for many years. Officials at the capitol, today, discussing the personnel of the next Congress, said it was possible the veteran legislator would be made the ranking minority member of the committee. Chairman Fitzgerald and most of the other members of the committees have been re-elected.

BOY IS RUNAWAY.

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Jack
Scherrer, a 10-year-old lad of 1221
O'Farrell street, ran away from home November 8th. His mother believed he had left town, but this morning the police learned that he and another boy had spent the night at the new Colonial Hotel, 32 Sacramento street.
When officers got the youngster had left, but it is believed that they are trying to emulate some of the story book heroes they have read about. The Scherrer boy is described as four feet tall, with brown hair and eyes.

POLICE WOMAN SUCCEEDS IN CAFE SCOUTING TOUR

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Mrs. Catherine Eisenhart, policewoman, was out on a little scouting tour early this morning. She slipped into the Panama Cafe, 155 Mason street. Quietly she sat at a table, watched the entertainers and soon ingratiated herself into the confidence of one of them. As the result of her expedition, Albert Hartman, proprietor of the Panama Cafe, 155 Mason street, must appear before the police commissioners for employing a minor.

Mrs. Eisenhart, after admiring Miss Della Buessey's performance, talked to the girl awhile and obtained from her a confession that she was but 15 years of age. When she sought to take her into custody, she was refused, but the policewoman's display of her seven-pointed star of authority overpowered the inter-venors and the girl was sent to the detention home.

DISCUSS FEDERAL CONTROL.
MADISON, Wis., Nov. 11.—The feeling of the newer western states that federal control of natural resources places them at a disadvantage with older states received vigorous expressions here today through Governor Spry of Utah, who addressed the governors' conference. In fact the day was set aside for consideration of state control of natural resources, and this part of the program was completed only by a luncheon at Lathrop Hall, University of Wisconsin.

PLEADS FOR UNEMPLOYED IN HIS MONTHLY REPORT

Superintendent Goodrich of the Oakland Public Workyard, in his monthly report just submitted, calls attention to the fact that the city has its question of the unemployed to face and that conditions are no better this year than they were last year. He states that the influx of discharged hands from the interior following the harvesting of the various crops, together with the usual quota of wanderers, is beginning to make itself felt and the problem is again before the municipality to solve. The heads of many families are unable to procure enough to support themselves. The report for the month of October is as follows:

Receipts—Cash on hand October 1, 1914, $22.85; team, $16.75; miscellaneous receipts 25c; bills paid by city treasurer to dealers, food, groceries, A. Sutherland, $36.39; rent of premises, $16.00. Total receipts from all sources, $276.25.

Disbursements—Food, $121.65; house expenses, $12.35; team, $16.75; road by institution, $25.30; miscellaneous expenses, $11.30; coal, $28; rent of premises, $16. Total disbursements, $354.70.

Balance on hand October 31, 1914, $22.65. Meals served, 2165; lodgings furnished, 1242; different men in institution, 151; temporary jobs found, 161.

DUKE KAHANAMOKU IS RESCUED FROM OCEAN

SAN FRANCISCO, Nov. 11.—Leaping overboard from the decks of the Matson liner Matsonia for a mid-ocean swim. Duke Kahanamoku, the Hawaiian swimmer, had a narrow escape from being lost, according to passengers who arrived here yesterday by the steamer Wilhelmina.

While the Matsonia and Wilhelmina were hove to at sea last Saturday for the purpose of transferring a stowaway, the Duke donned his bathing suit and dove from the rail, expecting to swim around the ship, which had apparently ceased moving. Although the Matsonia's engines were stopped the steamer was drifting, according to those on the Wilhelmina, the swimmer was left pretty well astern. The Wilhelmina's small boat which had transferred the stowaway to the Matsonia, then went to the aid of the Hawaiian.

Dr. Branner is a native and long-time resident of Tennessee. Other officers elected recently are: President, M. C. Harrison; first vice-president, J. B. Rawlings; second vice-president, Dr. F. M. Rose; third vice-president, W. S. Wells; secretary-treasurer, Mrs. C. S. Fitzsimmons.

The entertainment committee of the society, which is planning a "cotton dance," will meet tonight at the home of Miss Lucile Donnivant, 2347 Broderick street, San Francisco, to perfect arrangements.

Mrs. Fitzsimmons will entertain the members of the society at an informal dance at her home, 2057 San Jose avenue, Alameda, next Saturday evening.

ERASE SCARS OF WAR, MRS. DANIELS ADVISES

SAVANNAH, Ga., Nov. 11.—Southern women should recognize and more fully accept the part they may play in eradicating any lingering animosities between the North and South, declared Mrs. Joseph Daniels, wife of the secretary of the navy, in an address at the opening session here last night of the annual convention of the United Daughters of the Confederacy. Mrs. Daniels, as delegate from North Carolina, spoke in response to an address of welcome.

"Let those of us who know of the travail of the sixties keep alive the glory of sacrifice and the valor of the vanquished to the latest day of our lives," said Mrs. Daniels. "But first of all, we must know that love is greater than all things. Our children must be taught to love the flag of their country and sons and daughters alike given to see the patriotism of those who wore the blue as well as those who wore the gray."

Mrs. Daniels paid tribute to Mrs. Woodrow Wilson as "the best type of Southern womanhood."

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Bids for six new torpedo-boat destroyers opened at the Navy Department showed the Fore River Ship Building Company at Quincy, Mass., the lowest bidder for two of the craft at $795,000 each. William Cramp & Sons of Philadelphia bid for three boats at $825,000 each and the Bath Iron Works bid for three at $850,000 each. Other bidders were the Seattle Construction and Drydock Company for two boats at $850,000 each; the Newport News Ship Building Company for two boats at $875,000 each, and the Union Iron Works at San Francisco, two boats at $890,000 each.

FINE CATTLE SOLD.
SAN JOSE, Nov. 11.—The finest herd of show cattle in the world has just been sold to Dr. A. K. Macomber, owner of the Palmdale ranch, by Hollister. They comprise the famous herd of Kentucky short-horns, sixty in number, and will be brought from Elmdorf farm, Kentucky. The herd is headed by the two magnificent bulls, King Cumberland and Fayette Marshall. These cattle were the property of the late James B. Haggin and have taken more premiums, sweepstakes and grand championships than any cattle in the world.

JUMPS TO DEATH FROM BOAT.
An unknown man jumped from the Southern Pacific ferry-boat Berkeley yesterday afternoon when the vessel was off Goat Island, and was drowned. The Berkeley left San Francisco at 4:40 o'clock, and was stopped when the cry of "Man overboard!" was given. None of the passengers or the hands aboard the vessel could give the police any description of the stranger. A boat lowered from the Berkeley searched the waters for several minutes, but no sign of the man was found.

HEAVY LOSS IN OCEAN COMMERCE

Shipping Men Estimate Decrease of 25 Per Cent in World's Trade.

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Shipping men estimate that the volume of the world's maritime commerce has been decreased in the neighborhood of 25 per cent by the war. The heaviest part of the loss falls on Germany and Austria, but there is hardly a nation which does not feel the restrictions imposed upon shipping by the hazards of war and the falling away of international trade.

Notwithstanding the lessened danger to vessels of the allied and neutral nations since most of the German warships have been driven from the high seas, movements of merchantmen are still attended with more or less secrecy. Even in the Atlantic the arrival or departure of steamers frequently is not reported, lest clues be given to warships of hostile nations.

Steamers frequently go to other ports than those for which they were scheduled, and the nations have taken over largely by the allied and neutral nations. Into American ports are coming merchantmen of countries which heretofore have had little or no shipping with the United States. Danish and Scandinavian vessels have taken over much of the trade formerly held by the Germans.

Forced withdrawal of German and Austrian vessels has led to the creation of new trade routes. Business formerly held by these nations has been taken over largely by the allied and neutral nations. Into American ports are coming merchantmen of countries which heretofore have had little or no shipping with the United States. Danish and Scandinavian vessels have taken over much of the trade formerly held by the Germans.

ARRESTED ON CHARGE OF STEALING $133,000

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—Charged specifically with the larceny of $133,000, Richard J. Hartman, former president of the Ticket Brokerage firm of Tyson & Co., was arrested last night on the eve of his departure for Europe and lodged in the Tombs. Three indictments against him were handed down yesterday by the grand jury, based on the complaint of Mrs. Charlotte R. MacKenzie, widow of a former official of the Singer Sewing Machine Co.

Mrs. MacKenzie, who was left $60,000 in stocks and bonds in 1907 by her husband's will, is said to be almost penniless. Her story is that she met Hartman in London and that he obtained her signatures to papers which she did not understand, but which gave him full power of attorney over her property. She alleges that he sold her stocks and invested the proceeds in his own enterprises, which failed.

TOYS FOR T. S. CHILDREN.
NEWPORT NEWS, Va., Nov. 11.—Christmas toys for American children arrived here today on the Dutch steamship Westerdijk from Rotterdam. Foxes containing the toys were marked "American property." Captain Dejong said he had taken the precaution to protect the goods from possible confiscation. The Westerdijk was stopped by British war vessels in the English channel, and forced to proceed to Southampton, where 800 pounds of copper was removed as contraband.

FOX CHASE IS ON.
LA GRANGE, Ky., Nov. 11.—Disappointment was the lot of the eighty men and women from over the country who participated in the fox chase of the National Fox Hunters' Association near here yesterday. Only cold trails were found, but good work was done by the hounds in hunting and trailing. Mrs. William Hall of Shelbyville, Ky., was thrown and received minor injuries. The chase yesterday was for all-aged dogs and was resumed today.

HOW I DARKENED MY GRAY HAIR

Lady Gives Simple Home Recipe That She Used to Darken Her Gray Hair.

For years I tried to restore my gray hair to its natural color with the prepared dyes and stains, but none of them gave satisfaction and they were all expensive. I finally ran on to a simple recipe which I mixed at home that gives wonderful results. I gave the recipe, which is as follows, to a number of my friends and they are all delighted with it. To 7 oz. of water add a small box of Barbo Compound, 1 oz. of bay rum and ¼ oz. of glycerine. Use every other day until the hair becomes the required shade, then every two weeks. It will not only darken the gray hair, but removes dandruff and scalp humors, and acts as a tonic to the hair. It is not sticky or greasy, does not rub off and does not color the scalp. You can prepare it at home at very little expense.

If Crookedness Exists, Expose It.

Following his declaration at the Macdonough Theater during the campaign, Francis J. Heney reiterates his charge that officials of Oakland and Alameda county are corrupt. He is quoted as having said:

Everyone knows that graft and political corruption dominate the city administration of Oakland, the county administration of Alameda. The recent elections frauds in Alameda county furnished proof enough, but that was only a tithe of the things that could be uncovered by vigorous and aggressive investigation. Give me a free hand with an honest grand jury to investigate and I will bring these principals to book within thirty days.

These charges are coupled with an offer on the part of Mr. Heney to act as Deputy District Attorney in the uncovering of official corruption. Brought to the attention of District Attorney W. H. L. Hynes, the latter declined to appoint Mr. Heney a deputy, declaring his own ability to prosecute offenders and calling upon Heney to furnish proof of his allegations in the following paragraph:

I dare Mr. Heney to show me that there is graft or official wrong-doing in Oakland or Alameda county, such as he intimates he can disclose. I wish to assure the citizens of this county that I will co-operate with Mr. Heney or any other man who can make disclosures of graft or corruption.

Whereupon Mr. Heney declares he will have nothing to do with the matter unless given the free hand, made a deputy and accorded powers equal to the District Attorney himself. Mr. Hynes, reviewing this assertion, intimates that Heney is trying to use his office for the purpose of paying off scores of political enmity, wants to use it for political purposes, and again dares Heney to come forward with his evidence, tendering him every assistance, financial and otherwise.

THE TRIBUNE believes if graft and corruption exists in Oakland and Alameda county it should be exposed, the guilty ones brought to trial and punished and in this work will give the District Attorney every aid possible. THE TRIBUNE also believes that if Francis J. Heney has any proof of such graft and corruption he should come forward and tender it to the District Attorney as his duty as a citizen demands. THE TRIBUNE also reminds Mr. Heney that if he refuses to do this he stands convicted before the people of this city, county and state of compounding a felony by his refusal to aid in bringing guilty men to justice unless appointed to a lucrative office. THE TRIBUNE believes District Attorney Hynes able and competent to prosecute any offender or offenders and believes he has as many convictions for wrong-doing to his credit as Mr. Heney.

Mr. Heney has assailed every man holding a public office in Oakland and in Alameda county, for, until allegations are made against those alleged to be guilty, all are under suspicion.

No good citizen, knowing a crime has been committed, will attempt to conceal it or to protect those guilty of it, or seek to further his own ends and purposes by refusing to disclose his knowledge of such guilt unless appointed to an office.

There the case rests. It is up to Mr. Heney to make good. If he lays his information before the District Attorney and if it is valid and substantial enough to warrant action for probable cause, Mr. Heney will have conferred a favor upon the honest citizenship of this city and county. All these citizens will get behind a movement to punish the offenders. But if he refuses, he places himself in the position of a man who would condone an offense unless he was paid for prosecuting the offenders.

As to Mr. Heney's request for "an honest grand jury," THE TRIBUNE would remind him that there are as honest men in this city and county as in any section of California; that in the past the grand juries of Alameda county have proven true to their trusts and that the expression, coming as it does from him, is little less than an insult to the integrity of the citizenship.

Time was when the fight game was on the square. The old time pugilist fought, not so much for the purse as for the glory of victory. He stood up man to man and battled with what was known in those days as "the raw uns," meaning, gentle reader, his naked fists. Of course he was allowed to wrestle a bit and go down on his opponent in a fall with his knee in the pit of the under man's bread basket, but that was all. He had to fight according to rule. He must not bite, gouge, kick or try to crowd the other man's eye out with his thumb.

At that fighting was somewhat brutal and there was a hue and cry against it, quieted somewhat by the adoption of the rules formulated by the late Marquis of Queensberry, providing for the use of gloves, a fixed limit for a round and a fixed interval of rest, no wrestling, no clinching, so far as it could be avoided, and for a time this served very well.

The mighty Sullivan made a great success under the new rules, following his defeat of Paddy Ryan in the early eighties and later his victory over Kilrain. The boxing game grew popular. The purses increased. The class of persons attending contests improved. Not all men who have sat at the ring sides were "lowbrows."

But as purses increased the gambling element predominated in the sport. Matches were "fixed" and those willing to bet a few dollars or a few hundreds or even more, were given what is known as the "double cross." Pugilists laid down before antagonists they could have easily defeated. Here and there was a match on the square, but as a rule there was always something crooked connected with the game. "Meal ticket" gladiators multiplied and that class is by no means desirable. Occasionally some fellow not in condition died as the result of an encounter—although it is doubtful which has the most victims, pugilism or football—and that aided in creating public sentiment against ring contests.

The rest is history. The people have put a stop to it and it will never be revived in this State and is doomed in others.

But it was not due entirely to the efforts of church people this action was taken. There are a whole lot of men who like to see two well trained, well matched men go twenty rounds, or to a finish for that matter, who helped knock out this sort of work. They realized that matters had been carried too far and that it was time a check was put on the leeches who fostered matches, engaged crooked referees and aided in fleecing the square-toed chap who is willing to venture his cash on the merits of a contest.

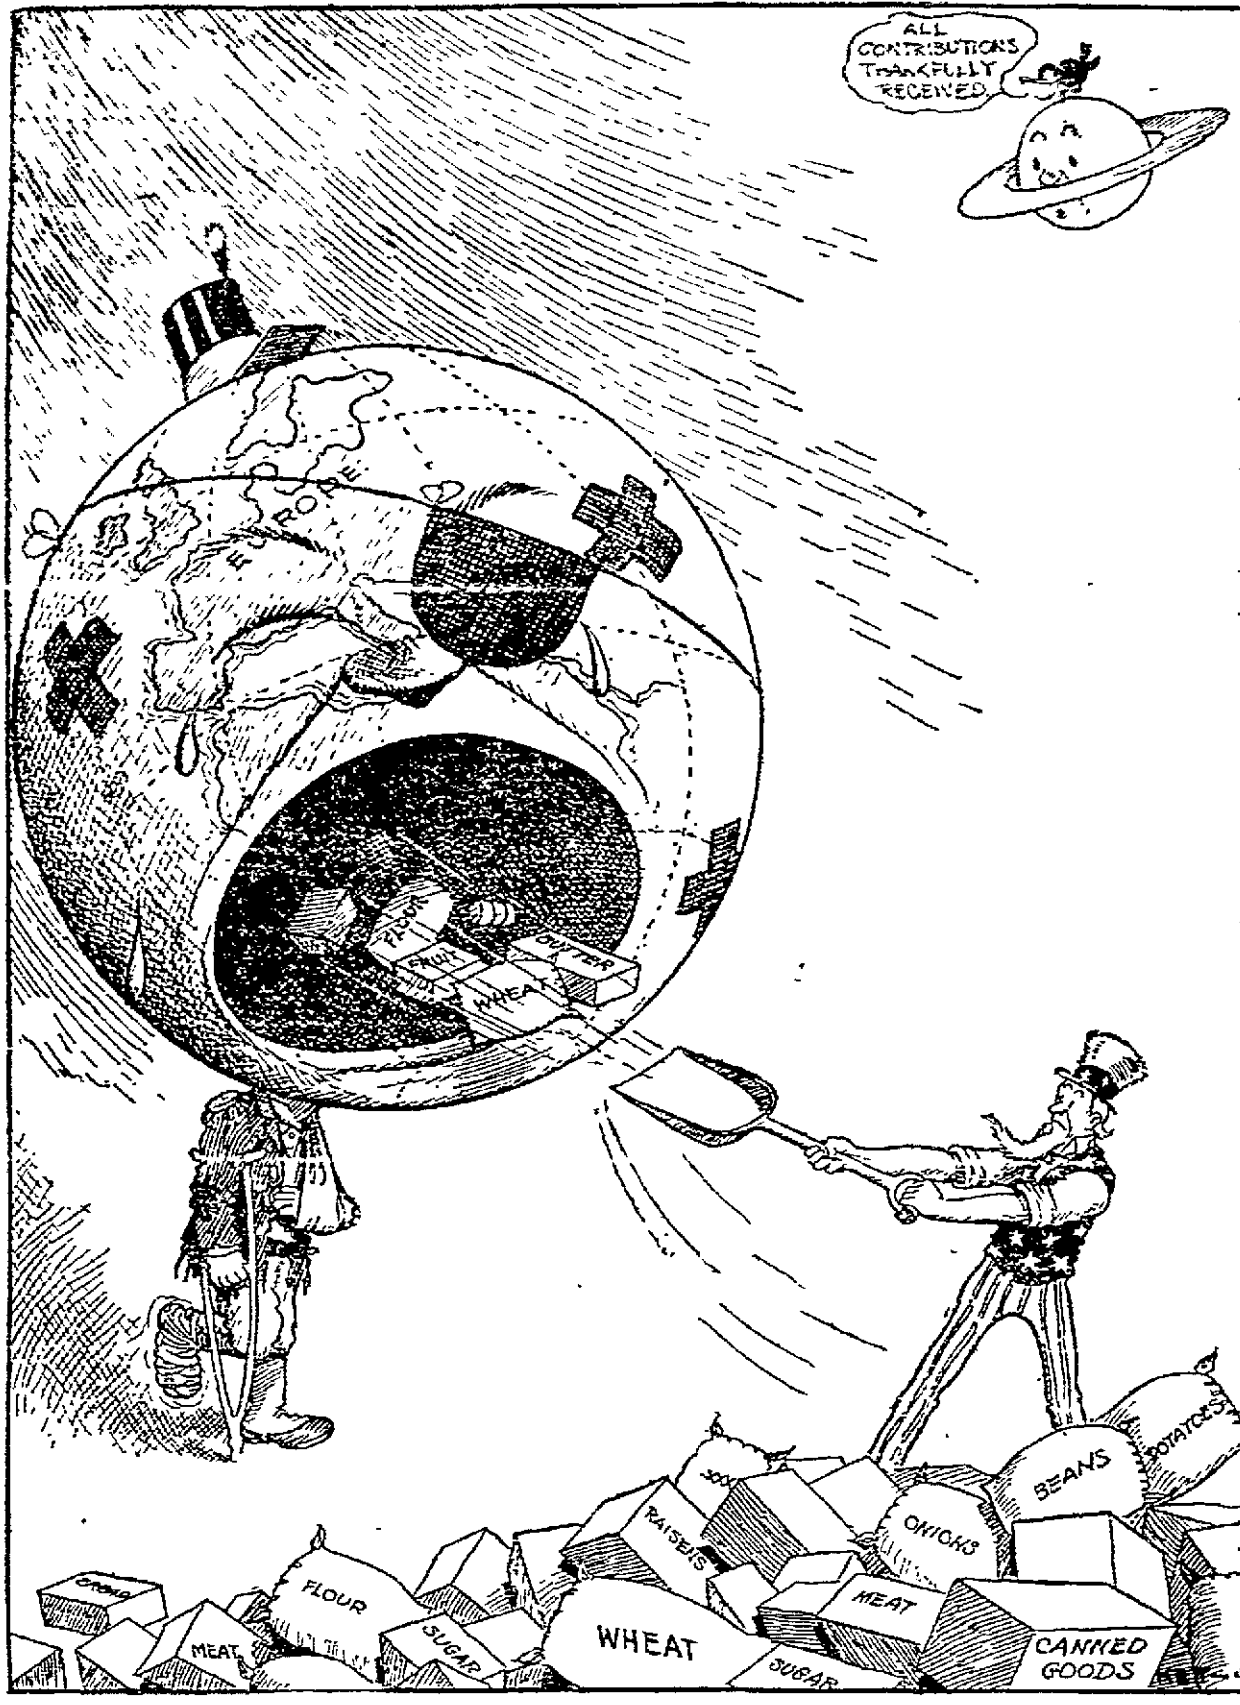

The saloon element can take warning from the fate of prize-fighting. Just as soon as the proprietors are forgotten in a desire for money, just so soon are those responsible doomed to defeat. Last Sunday there were more tottering drunks on the street than there have been for a month. It looked as if the defeat of State-wide prohibition had encouraged the saloon men to greater effort.

The public will not stand for this. The time is at hand when the saloon man must stop selling to men already intoxicated and to men known to be habitual drunkards. Of course the latter will get supplies indirectly and in a way for which the saloon men are not responsible until other means are employed to check them, such as preventing a wholesaler from selling except in quantities so great that this class cannot buy and retailers from selling at wholesale at all, but unless reforms are instituted the saloon business will be outlawed and no one will mourn it save the men who by their own actions are doing their best to make decent people disgusted with it.

If the Royal Arch membership of California is wise it will start housecleaning at once, drive the dives from existence and by its own set and rigid rules for the conduct of saloons avoid the necessity of action on the part of the body politic.

After viewing the "buy-a-bale-of-cotton," "buy-a-box-of-apples" and other purchasing movements, Boston has, in self defense, started a "buy-a-cod-fish" campaign.

A HUNGRY WORLD

Full Train Crew Bill Rejected.

Missouri's legislature, at its last session, adopted a full train crew bill, similar to that of California. The referendum was invoked on the measure and it was defeated by a very decisive majority. Advocates of defeat contend that the figures against it will reach nearly 100,000. This makes the fourth western State to reject full train crew bills, Kansas, Texas and Oklahoma having previously turned down the propositions.

Reasons ascribed for the downfall of the law in Missouri are that decreases in sales of commodities to railroads have influenced traveling men, business men and manufacturers to work against it; that the farmers believed the passage of the law would result only in a further indirect tax on them; that railroad employees believed the roads could stand no further operating expenses without wage cuts and layoffs.

It looks as if the railroads were getting more sympathy from the general public than formerly which is reluctant to further embarrass the carriers. As is well known the railroads of the country have demanded the right to increase rates, the application still pending. Awaiting the decision of the inter-state commerce commission, the management of several lines reduced train service to the discomfort of the public. The Pennsylvania system was one of the first to take this action. Other lines followed.

One peculiarity of the situation lies in this fact, that while the western States have of late showed a more friendly disposition to legislation of this character, the commonwealths rejecting it are, with the exception of California, western, while those that have recently accepted it are New York and New Jersey, presumed to be the strongholds of the old, conservative elements.

The result in Missouri was not due to apathy, for the fight was one of the most vigorous of the campaign, both proponents and opponents being especially active.

The foregoing are the facts; the reader can apply his own psychology. But in applying it, the fact should be remembered that it was a vote of the people that downed the law in Missouri and the will of the people is the supreme law.

In the final carving of Turkey who will get the wishbone?

Iron crosses are being freely distributed, but many stomachs go empty and the list of the fatherless grows rapidly. The flower of the nations at war go down to death while the crowned heads sleep on downy beds and issue orders for more victims to step forward and fight the battle which jealousy and greed of power started, not one of the upper crust has been dropped in the trenches to date.

Looks as if the Turks intend carrying the war into Africa.

In the St. Louis divorce court recently Mrs. Sinn and Mrs. Hell were divorced from their respective husbands. While the wages of sin are said to be death, in this instance the wages of Sinn, who is a barber, were eight dollars a week and he had to pay his wife half. Mrs. Hell alleged her husband had spent $4700 of her money, which created a condition similar to his title, because he refused to refund the money.

INTERESTING BITS

Florida never agrees very well. There's but the odds are you saw less probably the word most recklessly used about them.

You have doubtless observed the error, thing so easy to find as it is. It is usually pretty hard to find out that a woman or an automobile will do. A boy is one who is late to dinner, takes as readily as you spot those of but probably he isn't busy working.

Twenty Years Ago Today

Here is another chance for those who believe in the "stranger things in heaven and earth than are dreamed of in man's philosophy." About two months ago a deplorable accident occurred by which Mrs. Fred Gatter lost her right leg above the knee. The shattered member, after being amputated, was taken to an undertaker's store in St. Helena, where it was embalmed and prepared for interment in Mountain View Cemetery. After the operation of amputation, Dr. McCurdy told of instances that had come under his notice of where anything happening to a severed limb could be felt by the person who had lost it, even though great distances separated the amputated member and the patient. A few days after Fred Gatter had a shock. Unknown to Mrs. Gatter, her amputated limb was taken from St. Helena to Oakland, and all through the time it was in transit she complained of a pain in the leg—that is, the right leg. "The pain is gone," she described the symptoms as "just where the knee would be, and as if a cord were bound lightly there and cutting into the flesh. Gatter decided upon a coup. He said he would go to the cemetery and cut the cord. Instead of going to the cemetery, he remained downtown at business as usual, but when he went home he told his wife he had done as he said he would. His wife, however, felt no relief at his story. The sharp, cutting pain was still there. To satisfy himself that it was not a trick of the imagination, Gatter, without telling his wife what he intended to do, took an undertaker, and going to the cemetery, exhumed the buried limb and cut the cord. When he returned home he was to use his own words "completely laid out." His wife was in the best of spirits, laughing and happy, and her first greeting to him was, "The pain is gone." "When did it go?" he asked. "At 3 o'clock this afternoon," she replied. That was the very time that Gatter cut the cord on the limb at Mountain View.

Relief of Belgium's Distressed.

Of course Oakland is in line with other cities and communities of the State and nation in the movement for the relief of the unfortunate women and children and old men and old women of war-torn and devastated Belgium, and Oakland is taking practical steps toward sending across the sea the necessities of life that will be needed so badly this winter.

That mass meeting over which Mayor Mott presided was made up of sincere and earnest men and women who do things, and the meeting today at Hotel Oakland, when a number of women of the city will gather to complete plans already made and initiate new ones, will be equally sincere.

It is noted that there is a disposition on the part of the promoters to send substantial, for which credit should be given. This is no time to send chocolate caramels or marshmallows; that which is needed most is food and clothing. That donation of a ton of flour made by a prominent milling company, and twenty dollars in cash is a splendid suggestion. The firm making that gift understands conditions. Flour alone is not worth much for subsistence, but that money will buy a whole lot of yeast powder to make it available.

It is going to be a cold, wet winter in Belgium and Holland, where so many refugees are. Stout shoes for little feet, and stout shoes for larger feet, warm petticoats and dresses, shawls, caps, mittens and things of that sort will be most acceptable. Condensed milk for the little ones in arms, sides of bacon, beans, rice, everything of the substantial, heat producing varieties of food, should be included.

But then why should a mere newspaper offer suggestions when those engaged are so competent? Leave it to the men and women of Oakland to do the right thing and to do it quickly. It is Divinity's own work these people are engaged in and they should be commended for it.

It is noted that a dollar campaign has been inaugurated. That every family in the city will be given an opportunity to contribute. That is an excellent suggestion. The school children are active also, and that adds zest to the movement. School children are the most active factors in this kind of work. When San Francisco was stricken the superintendent of schools in Ogden turned his entire little army of 5000 loose and told them to go home and bring everything they could for relief. The order was given at nine o'clock and at four o'clock two carloads were on the way.

Leave it to Oakland's men and women and school children to do all that can be done. The result will be gratifying. It is more blessed to give than to receive and the joy of bestowing is far in excess of that of acquiring.

Berkeley, Alameda and other east bay cities should not be overlooked in bestowing commendation for good deeds. Active committees in both cities are at work and the results are excellent and will be still more excellent. The east bay towns are a unit in the good work.

London Custom to Bring Departed Glories Back

There are to be spring exhibitions with "private views" on the opening nights when society will gather to discuss the pictures more or less intelligently and the beauty or originality of some striking portrait. It is not to be wondered through the rooms to have her grace compared to the painter's reproduction. Quite as it is done in English novels, and, for that matter, at real "private views" in London.

BERKELEY Gossip of Students and Residents in UNIVERSITY TOWN and the ISLAND CITY

CARDINAL BEWARE OF WATCHFUL BEAR

U. C. Students Guard Big "C" and Patrol the Campus.

STUDENT SIGNALS.
In case Stanford invaders try to enter the campus at Berkeley today, the big game and are discovered, the following signals will warn Blue and Gold guards and bring them to the attacked spot in a rush:
One whistle blast, trouble on north side.
Two blasts, south side.
Three blasts, west side.
Four blasts, east side.
One long blast, California field.
One short blast, football statue.

BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—The ill-fated Antwerp, except for its fortifications, presented to the foe no more desperate front of defense than the University of California campus invaders. Three thousand men students are ready with every sort of weapon and in every part of the grounds to keep out Cardinal invaders and to protect the various insignia that tell of the approach of the day of the big game.

Not only is the big "C" on Charter hill watched by student warriors, armed to the teeth, but other places that offer temptation to wielders of red point are similarly watched. The pile of wood, ever increasing in size that will be burned at the last rally tomorrow night, is surrounded night and day by freshmen. The sacred are that Everett J. Brown and others took from the Cardinal years ago is sealed under lock and key in the vault of a local bank.

The local collegians well know that Stanford has sufficient provocation and that a pitched battle is not unlikely before Saturday morning. Monday night a group of freshmen descended upon the Stanford campus. They daubed blue and gold paint all over the big memorial statue and swathed enormous "Cs" in the proper shades on the Leland Stanford Junior memorial arch. Just a short time before they lighted, hours before it was due, a pile of wood the Cardinal freshmen had gathered for a rally.

RALLY IS HELD.
Last evening there was an impressive rally held at Harmon gymnasium by a horde of cheering undergraduates, at which definite plans for systematic defense were outlined. A guard-mount plan was broached and received with enthusiasm. Volunteers offered themselves by the hundreds and are promptly told into squads by the senior and junior commanders for each squad were named.

All night the guard was mounted and again through today. The entrance to the campus and the sacred places were watched by freshmen. A signal beacon light burned at the big "C" where a group of sophomores awaited the enemy, who did not come. There were even rumors that the "C" would try to blow up the "C," but none of the red shirts appeared.

Beginning tonight, the regular military guard will be put into action. Under the direction of Major H. W. Cochran of the University of California, the military companies will man the campus and aid the guarding committee. The campus is divided into four sections, each of which will be assigned to one company. The night guard has been formed into three shifts, comprising four hours on duty and eight hours off. In addition to the regular military guard, the campus has been made. Captains of the companies met at the armory today at 11 o'clock for final instructions.

Every stranger will be questioned about his business and whether he is Stanfordite who is caught on the campus. The punishments devised for him are dire in the extreme. Mildness of them will be a ducking in the historic "Chem. pond."

N. D. G. W. TO ENTERTAIN.
ALAMEDA, Nov. 11.—Turkeys and chickens are to be the incentive that will attract the big game to the hall, Park street, near Central avenue, Thursday evening. The occasion will be a banquet given by the National D. G. W. and the Native Daughters of the Golden West.

The committee in charge comprises Mrs. M. J. Miller, Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Lucy Schuler, Miss Dorothy Lusk, and Miss Louise Eckstein.

AVENUE IS LIGHTED.
BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—Through its entire length from the south town line to the university campus Telegraph avenue has been brightly lighted for the first time in its history. The lighting was first time there has been in course of erection where the latter did not exist for several weeks and were first put in operation last evening. The new lighting is being similarly equipped at a cost to the city for $2.50 each per month.

PLAN SONG RECITALS.
BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—Two song recitals are to be held on Sunday afternoon next, one at the residence of Mrs. Allen G. Freeman on Ridge road. The artists appearing will be Miss Myrtle Wilson, Miss Anna Miller, Wood-Hart, and Mrs. Mabel Hill Redfield. The second recital is to be November 22.

HELP COMES QUICKLY
When Hyomel is Used for Head Colds, Catarrh Or Croup.

When your head is all stuffed up, causing you dull headaches, difficult breathing, constant sniffing and you feel generally miserable, there is nothing quite equal to Hyomel to give quick, effective and lasting benefit—yet perfectly harmless, simple to use and inexpensive.

To get quick and certain relief from catarrh or cold it is most important that the medication goes directly to the inflamed tissue lining the air passages. That's the Hyomel method. Just put a few drops of antiseptic Hyomel in the inhaler that comes with every complete outfit, and breathe it you will feel better at once. It clears the head, quickly relieves the tightness in the chest and that choked-up feeling, all disagreeable nasal discharges, watery eyes and dull headaches surely cease.

So certain are the curative powers of Hyomel for catarrh, croup, asthma and colds that it is the only "No-cure-no-pay" plan—Adv.

BEAUTY SHOULD ALWAYS REMAIN, SAYS DANCER

MUSCULAR BACK OF MISS CLARISSA EMERICK, WHO GIVES PHYSICAL CULTURE ADVICE TO GIRLS.

CLARISSA'S RULES.

Bad exercise is worse than no exercise. It must be directed by someone who knows the body, and this every girl and woman ought to know.

The first necessity is to learn how to get one's poise and then how to keep it.

Normal development is achieved only through the symmetrical development of all muscles.

Keep every muscle at your command, to use it when you need it, and don't develop one muscle at the expense of another; that means knots, and knots aren't nice.

Don't wear corsets if you can avoid it, but if you do wear them, keep your body so strong you don't have to depend on them for support.

BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—No matter what a woman's age, she may remain beautiful. That is what Clarissa, who is the youngest daughter of Mrs. Foreman Emerick, ought to know. According to her friends, she has the most beautiful back and shoulders and throat and arms of any woman in Berkeley, and she attributes it all to the careful physical training which her mother, Mrs. Emerick, has given her.

When in her teens Clarissa was a popular dancer, and having temporarily quit the stage, she still keeps up the exercise which helped to make her attractive before the footlights. She was only three years old when Mrs. Emerick started training her, teaching her little by little how to balance her body, how to use her muscles and how to know herself.

It is to "knowing herself" that Clarissa attributes in large measure her achievement of physical perfection. She declares that girls, when still young, should learn the muscles and parts of their bodies and know how to use them. This thing she attributes to the minds of the children entrusted to them.

Six inches is some chest expansion for even a man, but this is what Clarissa has. And she does not want to sink in her chest and stoop over for the first measurement, either, she declares.

"There are no knots in my arms and shoulders," she declares. "They come from using the muscles out of balance, putting more stress on one part than on another. Exercise must be even and symmetrical; that is the secret."

BERKELEY, Nov. 11.—There was an "exchange of views" as it were, between the members of the First Presbyterian church and the pastor last night at the reception given for Rev. and Mrs. Herbert Thompson.

The church was represented by E. F. Burrell, president of the board of trustees, who was master of ceremonies; Edward Albert, superintendent of the Sunday school; Smith Anderson, who spoke for the men of the church; J. E. Baker, head of the Sunday evening Bible class; and Mrs. E. L. Nash, who spoke for the women of the church. Music was provided by an orchestra of young men under the direction of Miss Lilla Todd by Miss Anna Feltman, Miss Margaret Lawrence, J. I. Thomas, tenor, who sang "The Lost Chord" (Sullivan) with violin obbligato by Ferrant Underhill, and Mrs. E. L. Nash, who sang "The Real Work is Not Done by Those Who are in the Position of Leadership," he said, "I am here as one of the helpers to be with you in your joys and your sorrows. I pray that I may be not only God's minister, but a true pastor."

LECTURES ON ESPERANTO BEFORE RESEARCH CLUB
ALAMEDA, Nov. 11.—An universal brotherhood brought about by an universal language was a point brought out by Mrs. Emma Rathgeb at the Research Club, Monday afternoon in her talk on "Esperanto." Mrs. Rathgeb gave an outline of the history of the development of the language and of the progress which it has made in the past few years. She said that the language is one of the good that may and is being accomplished by it. The present was urged to attend the congress, which will be held in Paris, August of 1915, where the immense benefit to be derived from a knowledge of the language will be demonstrated.

The congress for the year 1915, which was held in Paris and was attended by one of the points called attention to by Mrs. Rathgeb.

Before and after the talk Mrs. A. J. Braden, vice-president of the Huxley club, gave several delightful songs, with Mrs. Rathgeb accompanying.

The humorous Scotch ditty story by Mrs. C. H. Anderson, one of the members of the club, was an entertaining part of the program, which had been arranged by the president, Mrs. C. H. Anderson. Mrs. H. H. Huxley, who was hostess at her home on Buena Vista avenue.

LAKESIDE PARK TO HAVE REAL JAPANESE GARDEN

Oakland is to have in Lakeside Park a real Japanese garden, designed, constructed and planted in strict accordance with all the canons of the art of landscape gardening as practiced by the masters in Japan.

The plan for the Japanese garden came from F. R. Donolo, a nurseryman. Several months ago the Chamber of Commerce learned that Donolo was willing to contribute his time, means and knowledge to the city of Oakland, and that people and their visitors might have as a part of the park equipment, the very best in that line.

Several talks upon the subject occurred and being impressed with the plan which Donolo had in mind, the Chamber of Commerce placed the matter before the park board in a letter in which it was suggested that communication be opened directly.

The result was that the officials of the park department and Donolo Brothers got together and it was announced today that a Japanese landscape gardener and city park board were laying out the grounds and that the plans are all perfected.

This will give Oakland the best example of Oriental landscape gardening to be found on this side of the Pacific and as a model of Oriental art it will be a distinct feature not only in the general improvement of the park, but it will be valuable in an educational way.

remittitur is entered here she will be taken to San Quentin.

employed in the Hotel Marlborough at Emeryville, and had been living as man

Cruelty Prevention Society Disposes of Month's Great Work

Oakland, Alameda, Berkeley, Hayward and Pleasanton together contributed sixty-five complaints concerning children to the Alameda county society for the prevention of Cruelty to Children during the first month of its existence, according to the report made yesterday at the monthly meeting of the society at the Oakland hotel by Secretary John H.
Fairweather. The society was recently formed because the San Francisco society, which for forty years has done this work, for lack of funds was obliged to outdine
its work from Alameda county.

Dr. Susan J. Fenton is president of the new organization.
The causes of complaint concerning the home condition of the 127 children were intemperance of father, mother or caretaker, cruelty of parents, immorality of parents, and neglect and desertion by parents. Most of the cases investigated were worked out by warning the parents and changing conditions, and are still pending, but eight cases, involving nineteen children, had to be taken to the Juvenile Court.

RUGBY DOPE ALL IN 'CARDS' FAVOR

Stanford Has Scored More Points Than U. C. in Less Games.

With the California-Stanford game
only three days off, things are getting down to a climax. As this is the real time for rugby dope, we might as well admit at once that the dope all favors the Cardinals. In piling up points in the games to California's 23 in 12 games, The Bears, however, show a great strength in their defensive averages, as in the same number of games played, the dope shows that the opponents have scored 19 points in 12 games, to the Stanford opponents' 25 in nine games.

Stanford's greatest test this season against Santa Clara resulted in a Stanford 15 to 0 win, while California walked over the Saints by a time of 35 to 0. The Bears are usually not supposed to be, but if they look back to 1907, when the California team having scored 182 to their opponents' 21, beat the Cardinal 19 to 0, a team that had scored 200 points, and had gone through the season without being scored against, you will understand the situation.

These latest figures are based on two premises. First, that Stanford tries to get her backfield in action as often as possible, giving her opponents, at times, a clear field. On the other hand, Coach Schaeffer has also been drilling the Bears in the attacking game, but not until he was sure that their defensive machine would work smoothly.
Some claim that the Bears are weak on the defense, and backfield are unable fact that even such a man as Guerin of the Olympic club can break through their defense, which was shown on last Saturday.

Outside of the Santa Clara game the Stanford team has not even met with a strenuous attack, but it will be a different story against California, where such a man as "Chalky" McGinnis is always ready to give the Bears a hard time. McGinnis can keep the play with the forwards, and thus prevent the Stanford speed merchants from handling the ball, the California team will have more than an even chance.

It is the opinion of many, however,
that the California backfield may surprise the farm lads. Considering their man for man, it takes a man with field glass to see that the Stanford team is not so strong as they appear. If the half back made him a little more Starting at the important position of half back and Montgomery are pretty well near equal in the game, Montgomery having played along side of Charlie Austin, now of Stanford, on the Berkeley high school team of 1913, when Tebbe Mackie, Stew and Mick Forbes, C. and N. Slater, Knowles, Vilas and other saints represented the team.

Glennell can hardly be figured with Austin at the inside five position, although Glennell's usefulness in handling the ball has made him a valuable man toward the development of team work. Austin's swerving and All-Black safety, and the Blue and the other more than a little. Lachmund at second five for the Cards, not only possesses wonderful speed, but coupled with his swiftness, is his ability to dodge and break through the opponent's defense.

What Lachmund makes up in attack, he loses out in Carroll's defensive work.
While Carroll, with years of experience can hardly offset the brilliancy of Freshman Brooks at center three who has not to taste the glory of a big battle.
Although Carroll has the shade here,
Brooks promises to be a California star on Saturday. When it comes to dodging, evading, ducking, tearing and crashhacking, California can figure no one with Urban.

And Sharpe, however, are no stitches in getting their man, and with Joe against these men, he will have to take all his time in the other side, and when once started, he will be of the same type, both being a bit weak on the defensive, with Hayes being the able one of the other ments of play. Helmus Andrews may have it ordinarily on Bogardus, but when Dandridge has the ball, the California team think no more of the days of Durgins, for they know that Bogardus can outshine them all. A pretty battle between Tiny Wines and Charles Wines, who will be opposed to each other on Saturday, will take place. Stanford fans think Wines is a star, have no fear of McGinnis as Tiny held him tight and he feels certain that he can outshine him again.

This season, however, as to stop
Joe, in the rest of the forward positions,
the experience and shiftness of the California team, and the fact that the Horned mermen, Smith, Douglas Saunders, Tilden, Cohen, and Liver-more, stand them in good stead. Wylie, Captain of the Cardinals, however, are as good, if not better, than any of these men, and their speed would be of great credit to many backfielders. The youthful vigor and gettiness of Freshman Tilden and Livermore, will be used to the greatest extent in being on top of the ball, and when once started, he will then surely know whether or not Stanford has a good defensive team.

TEST RATE LAWS

ST. LOUIS, Nov. 11.—Depositions are being taken here in the federal suit brought by the St. Louis and San Francisco Railroad to test the validity of the Arkansas law-cent passenger and maximum freight laws. Other roads operating through Arkansas are co-complainants in the suit. The taking of depositions was ordered by Federal Judge Trefler for the purpose of obtaining technical testimony.

Officials of the Tri-State contend that the Arkansas laws permit only a profit of less than 1 per cent on the railroad's investment in Arkansas.

CALIFORNIA IN CAPITAL

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Commissioner-General of Immigration Cam-metti arrived here yesterday from nearly a month's inspection of immigration stations in California and along the Mexican border.

He is expected to report to the Department of Commerce.

LEGISLATIVE ALIGNMENT FORECAST

Political Experts Shift Conjectures to Partisan Co-ordination of Branches.

Late returns indicate that both city and county amendments—No. 12, or the Oakland amendment, and No. 13, the San Francisco amendment, have been de-fected.

With election hazards at rest, and with speculation laid in part at least by Governor Johnson's announcement of certain important appointments, which will be made in organization of his new administration, conjecture has shifted to the partisan alignment of the legislative houses and to the co-ordination, or lack of prospective co-ordination, between Secretary of State Frank Johnson's office and the other administrative branches at the capital. Jordan is a Republican, and every other high dignitary of the state is Progressive.

Formation of the new legislature occupies the most impressive place in the public mind, and is certain, political experts say, that Governor Johnson has a legislative in thorough sympathy with his aims. This means that the governor will press his pledge to make state elective offices non-partisan, even as municipal and county elections are now.

Accomplishment of this requires floor
leadership of both houses under control of the administration. So there is a simmering among assemblymen for the speakership, with C. C. Young of Berkeley, speaker of the last assembly, prominent in the field.

GOVERNOR HAS PREFERENCE

Of next importance is the presidency pro tem of the senate. John M. Esma-n, as lieutenant-governor, is, of course, presiding officer of the upper house, but parliamentary exigencies require a pro tem chairman. Senator Edward J. Tyrrell of Oakland and Senator Thomas Kehoe of Eureka are leading candidates. The governor, however, prefers Senator Newton Thompson of Los Angeles, it is said.

In the event of Thompson's election, either Tyrrell or Kehoe will be floor leader of the senate.

Besides the new speaker and the new president of the senate, there will be new faces among the members of both houses. Here are some changes which are contemplated.

Senator Leroy A. Wright of San Diego (Republican) has yielded his seat to Edgar Luce, Progressive.

Senator E. A. Boynton of Oroville, president pro tem of the senate in several terms, did not seek re-election. He was succeeded by W. E. Duncan Jr., a Democrat, of Oroville.

Senator George W. Cartwright of Fresno, the Democrat who wrote the Cartwright anti-trust bill, has retired to place of former Assemblyman W. F.
Chandler, a Progressive.

MANY NEW SENATORS.
Claude F. Purditt of Humboldt has taken the seat in the senate of J. B.
Sanford, Democrat, who quitted his state office to be appointed registrar of lands by President Wilson. W. B. Shearer will occupy the senatorial seat of T. W. E.
Shanahan, from the second district, who is now superintendent of the mint. J. W.
Stuckelbruck, in the tenth district, fills the place of Anthony Cammetti, commissioner-general of Immigration.

John B. Curtin sacrificed his seat from the Twelfth Senatorial District to be Democrat, and was succeeded by J. B.
Ferguson.

There will be 15 new senators and 57
new assemblymen.

Governor Johnson has intimated an appointment in addition to those which he announced yesterday.

"The rumor is floating about," he said,
"that State Treasurer E. D. Roberts, on account of attending to his banking business in San Bernardino, may resign before his term would naturally expire. In that event State Printer Friend W.
Richards would be elected state treasurer at the polls, probably would be appointed to the vacancy, and Assistant State Printer Teikler would then assume Richardson's present position."

Regarding reappointment of the Railroad Commission, the governor added:

"The great question of the Railroad Commission has been discussed in large part to John M. Esleman, who has been elected lieutenant-governor. Mr.
Esleman's knowledge of the duties of railroad commissioner, his splendid service to the state, and his high rank in the industry in which I hold his position, will make any suggestion by him as to his successor a very important factor in that selection."

ATTITUDE OF JORDAN.
Last among the political morsels at the capital comes the attitude of Secretary of State Jordan.

What Jordan said in a formally issued statement to the press, which the Progressive have not repudiated as yet.

"The re-election of Governor Hiram Johnson is the most remarkable happening in California politics. Although one-third of this state's citizens may not be entirely satisfied with the present state administration, everyone is obliged to take off his hat to Governor Johnson's wonderful victory and his great personality.

The big majority of the people know that they wanted and they got him. Now that the battle is over and settled so decisively, it seems only just that politics should be put aside and all factions unite in doing their utmost for California's prosperity."

"I desired the election of Captain John D. Fredericks, the splendid Republican candidate, but now that the people have chosen it is incumbent upon me, I am permitted, to endeavor to work in harmony with the state administration, of which I am what might be termed the outsider."

"I desire, if permitted, to co-operate with the administration in an endeavor to make the next four years government the greatest period in our state's history."

PLAN REORGANIZATION

PHOENIX, Ariz., Nov. 11.—Stockholders of the Valley Bank, which suspended payments yesterday after a brief run the day before, were summoned today to attend a meeting tomorrow, at which plans for reorganization will be discussed. The bank, with its capital and surplus of $230,000 and deposits exceeding $2,
000,000, was the largest in Arizona.

J. C. Callaghan, state auditor, who has charge of the institution, expressed the hope that the suspension would be only temporary.

FIRE LADIES TO DANCE.
SAN LEANDRO, Nov. 11.—The San Leandro Fire Department has completed arrangements for a dance to be held in the hall of the Fire Department, thanking the community for its generous contribution to the fund.

PLAYGROUNDS GROW YOUTHS ARE MANY

HENRY CAMP.
—Hartsook, Photo.

Many robust lads may be seen romping about the playgrounds of the Bay cities, where the playground movement is meeting with phenomenal success.
Oakland now boasts of having more playgrounds than any other city in Northern California. There are now 39 playgrounds in Oakland, and within the near future others will be added to the chain of recreation centers. Washington and Lincoln Park playgrounds are the popular recreation reservations in Ala-ameda, where hundreds of boys and girls take part in the games and athletic contests. Henry Camp, five-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. J. Henry Camps of Ala-ameda, is among those who engage in all the outdoor pastimes.

HANDBALL SERIES TO BE WINTER RECREATION

Preparations are now being made for a handball series to be held in all the Oakland schools. The playgrounds introduced the handball game several years ago and the interest in that sport has not waned. However, baseball has been the leading game for the boys in the recent winter series, while German handball has absorbed the attention of the girls.

Several months ago the youth of the different schools commenced to play handball for the handball test, which will be conducted in the schools, east and west of Lake Merritt. Last year, baseball and handball contests were held, but handball will provide the diversion this winter.

De Fremery Park playground recently closed handball tournament when the De Fremery Midgets and Intermediates won the double championships.

The Midgets, Davis and Squares of the De Fremery squad defeated the Garfield boys. They were Pipitone and Texiera. The De Fremery Intermediate division was represented by J. J. and R. Roberts, who wrestled the honors from the Melrose team, which included Mario Ratazza and Arthur Calhoun.

Y. M. C. A. STUDENTS TO CARRY CHEER TO POOR

Boys of the Bible study classes of the Oakland Young Men's Christian Association are planning to serve Thanksgiving baskets to the poor. Last year the lads distributed "goodies" to 27 families, and a larger number will receive the salubrious fare this year. There are 511 boys in the Bible classes which are providing the Thanksgiving feast. Committees are now working upon their arrangements for the dinner, which will be forwarded to the respective homes by the boys.

Many social affairs are included in the holiday calendar for the association, but the programs have not as yet been announced.

HIGH SCHOOL TEAMS PREPARE FOR MATCHES

HAYWARD, Nov. 11.—Both the boys and girls tennis teams of the high school are getting into trim for a series of matches against the teams of other schools in the bay cities. At a meeting of the athletic body of the school yesterday, Raylie Crosby was elected captain of the boys' tennis team, and Peter Larsen was elected manager.

Ruth Cooper was chosen to captain the girls' tennis team, which will be under the management of Miss Corinne Hoare. The first game of the season between the high school girls' tennis club and a team representing Miss Vierge school in Berkeley resulted in a score of 25 to 25
in favor of the Berkeleians.

Another of the more heavily handicapped players was eliminated from the three-cushion tournament at Wright's Billiard Palace last night when Al W. Wolf, of the R. Harris. The latter had 22 to make against 15 by his opponent, but he had only reached 19 when the game was over. It went to 52 frames, making a low average for both, and the best run or each side was a two-bagger.

Tonight, F. M. Jacobs, who has won both his former games and is in at 13, meets D. W. Wolf, who has lost one game and has 15 to 50.

There is a tendency to place Gunboat Smith in the background simply because Sam Gunford shoved his chin around until he touched his ear. That's a little hard on the willing runner. The raw-boned sailor was a worker, hard and faithfully for recognition, and since he was the only one of the present crop of hopes with the heart to tackle "Tharm," he should be given another chance.

HOTEL ASS'N TO ISSUE BOOKLETS

Over Five Million to Be Printed, Containing Lists of Hostels and Apartments.

At a meeting of the executive committee of the Hotel Association yesterday afternoon in the Key Route Inn, it was decided that over five million booklets be printed containing a list of all the hotels and apartments belonging to the institution. These booklets will be distributed under the auspices of the exposition, all over the world.

It was also decided that a committee be chosen to represent the association at the other east-bay cities; the body will consist of Henry Barker of the Key Route Inn, Victor Reiter of Hotel Oakland, and Noah Gray of Hotel Shattuck. It will be the duty of this committee to see to it that the hotels and apartments in the east-bay district comply with all the rules and regulations of the body.

Following the meeting of the association, the regular meeting was called, at which were congregated all the leading hotel and apartment house managers in Oakland, Berkeley and Alameda. The meeting was presided over by Victor Reiter, manager of Hotel Oakland.

THE TRIBUNE THANKED.

After the minutes of the preceding meeting had been read by assistant manager Darrow of the Hotel Information Bureau, the report of the bureau was submitted, in which THE TRIBUNE and other bay city papers were thanked for their liberality in devoting space to the interests of the Hotel Association.

In speaking of the strides already made by the association during its short existence, Barker remarked that he thought a house to house canvass would invite many more to enter and swell the ranks. "I can only say that in the single campaign we made, four of us visited about twenty hotels in Berkeley and out of that number about eleven accepted and there were no refusals."

"It seems to me," continued Barker, "that the general sentiment is in favor of the project. I would suggest that similar campaigns be inaugurated, and the result I am sure would be that almost all the hotels and apartments would be delighted to join."

MANY INQUIRIES RECEIVED.

"The success of the fair depends largely on this association," declared Victor Reiter, "and we have already received numerous letters asking if the people are to be overcharged in the hotels as at the other fairs. The booklets that we will send out, should serve as an assurance to all the countless numbers who desire to come and expect, according to the estimation of President Moore, 500,000 more than if the association had been organized."

At the close of the meeting many others expressed their intention of joining the association and many names were added to the books. It is estimated that there will be more than a thousand apartment house rooms when the association is made and it is thought by the association that this will more than satisfy the wants of the public.

HORSES FOR ALLIES BURNED ON REMBRANDT

NORFOLK, Va., Nov. 11.—Virtually all of the 300 horses on board the British steamship Rembrandt were burned to death when the ship took fire off the Virginia capes, according to information reaching here last night. The Rembrandt was bound from Baltimore to St. Nazaire, France, and the animals are understood to have been intended for the armies of the allies.

It was reported here last night that Captain Edlin, of the Rembrandt, had notified officials of the Lomport and Holt Line, owners of the ship, that he had reason to believe the vessel was fired by German spies who were members of the crew. The captain is said to have claimed that threats against the ship were made before she steamed from Baltimore Saturday. No confirmation of these reports was available.

Last night the Rembrandt was ten miles off Cape Henry disposing of the carcasses of the horses. She will proceed to Newport News for repairs. Forward compartments of the ship are reported badly damaged.

When the fire was discovered the ship was two hundred miles off the Cape. The smoke was so dense that the crew could not reach the names and the stampeded animals were left to their fate. The ship's hold was flooded and the hatches closed, smothering out the fire.

CHURCHMEN DINE SCIENTIST.
Prof. Frederick Starr of the department of anthropology of the University of Chicago was the guest of honor at the annual dinner of the Men's League of the First Congregational Church of this city last evening in the church parlors. About 150 men were seated at the tables, where Arthur W. Moore, president, presided.

Prior to the address delivered by Professor Starr the following officers were elected for the league: F. M. Parcells, president; William T. Satterwhite, vice-president; and H. A. Merrill, secretary. The distinguished savant will give a series of lectures at the First Congregational Church on alternate Tuesdays and Fridays, under the auspices of the State University extension department. He delivered his last address last evening on the dinner on the subject, "Aztec Mexico."

SUIT OVER $136.
WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—A difference of $136 was the basis of a suit which today reached the United States Supreme Court. It was started originally by the Mackay Cotton Supply Company of Franklin, N. C., to recover $275 overcharges on a shipment of ranges from Piqua, O. The Fallulah Falls Railway Company offered to pay $230 in settlement. The difference was $45 and could not be adjusted.

The case was appealed to the Supreme Court from the North Carolina Supreme Court because a $100 penalty had been imposed upon the railway for failure to pay the claim within a prescribed period.

DISSOLVE PINE TRUST.
NEW ORLEANS, Nov. 11.—The Yellow Pine Manufacturers' Association was formally dissolved and its affairs liquidated at a meeting of directors of the association here last night. Tentative plans were made for a new organization, to be known as the Yellow Pine Association.

A mass meeting of yellow pine interests was called for December 6 in New Orleans. It was announced that the new association would confine its activities to obtaining uniformity and inspection. The old association, with headquarters at St. Louis, is said to be defendant in outster proceedings brought by the state of Missouri.

UNCLE JOE" PREDICTS GREAT G. O. P. VICTORY

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—In a letter to Governor Tener of Pennsylvania, made public here today, Representative-elect Joseph G. Cannon of Illinois, former Speaker of the House, predicts that the nation will go Republican in 1916.

The letter was in reply to congratulations sent to the former Speaker by Tener.

"Uncle Joe" said: "I believe that the Republican party will be returned to full power in 1916, and certainly the country would warrant all good Republicans to earnest effort to that end."

HAS SLEPT TEN MONTHS.

GARDNER, Mass., Nov. 11.—The sleeping patient at the state hospital at East Gardner, who has been in a state of coma for ten months, is showing signs of returning consciousness. During his long sleep special treatment was required to keep him alive and he is fed twice a day by means of a tube. During the past two weeks doctors have noted a tendency in the patient to shake off the lethargy that holds him. At times the man opens his eyes and the muscles of his face twitch.

Boy or Girl? Great Question!

This brings to many minds an old and tried family remedy—an external application known as "Mother's Friend." During the period of expectancy it is applied to the abdominal muscles and is designed to soothe the intricate network of nerves involved. In this manner it has such a splendid influence as to justify its use in all cases of coming motherhood. It has been generally recommended for years and years and those who have used it speak in highest praise of the immense relief it affords. Particularly for these knowing mothers speak of the absence of morning sickness, absence of strain on the ligaments and freedom from those many other distresses usually looked forward to with such concern.

There is no question but that "Mother's Friend" has a marked tendency to relieve the mind and this of itself is addition to the physical relief has given it a very wide popularity among women.

You can obtain "Mother's Friend" at almost any drug store. It has helped a host of mothers to a complete recovery. It is prepared only by Bradford Egan, proprietor Co. 301 Lamar Bldg., Atlanta, Ga. Avoid the many worthless substitutes.

LIMITS ONE SENTENCE TO TWENTY-FIVE WORDS

LOS ANGELES, Nov. 11.—"Any person who tries to put more than twenty-five words into one sentence in this court does so at his or her peril."

This was the assertion of Judge Monroe today when Mr. and Mrs. B. Grenman, 907 Alpine street, talked themselves out of the domestic relations court. They talked so fast and so long that Judge Monroe said:

"I think there is room for improvement on the parts of both of these persons, so I will send them home to start again. I warn them not to talk so much."

Mrs. Grenman complained that her husband had failed to provide for her. She said she would tell him all about it. Without further ceremony she started in.

"Wait a minute," cried Judge Monroe, wielding his gavel, while Grenman was talking. "You can say all that in twenty-five words. It's very clear what the trouble is. Go home and don't talk so much."

LINCOLN HIGHWAY ASS'N. ELECTS NEW OFFICERS

DETROIT, Nov. 11.—At the annual meeting of the Lincoln Highway Association held here yesterday the following officers were elected:

President, H. B. Joy, Detroit. Vice-presidents, R. D. Chapin, Detroit; Carl G. Fisher, Indianapolis; A. R. Lindbergh, New York; W. F. Coan, Clinton, Ia. Treasurer, Frank W. Clark, Detroit. Engineer, Emory H. Treco, Springfield, Mass. Secretary, A. R. Fardington, New York.

According to reports from several hundred towns, much use has been made of the highway during the last year, and it was predicted there would be still more traffic in 1915, because foreign conditions, it was said, have made European touring by automobile practically impossible.

SOUTHERN PACIFIC CUTS $17,449,100 "MELON"

NEW YORK, Nov. 11.—A luscious "melon" of $17,449,100 was received by the Southern Pacific from the Central Pacific last year, according to an obscure line in the annual pamphlet report just issued. This is the first intimation of it to the general public.

The "melon" took the shape of special dividends of 20 per cent, or $12,524,773 on the Central Pacific common stock and $2,555,627, or 20 per cent on the preferred. All the Central Pacific Railway Company shares are owned by the Southern Pacific. The special dividends were declared in addition to the regular dividends of 6 per cent each on the common and preferred stocks.

WARNING TO OLIVE GROWERS. FAIROAKS, Nov. 11.—A distressing condition in the case of Manzanillo ripe olives has manifested itself in the form of a serious bacterial rot, which is apparent when the olives are received at the packing plant and which entirely consumes them in one or two days, according to a circular letter issued by the Fair Oaks Fruit Company.

Best Cough Medicine for Children. "Three years ago when I was living in Pittsburg one of my children had a hard cold and coughed dreadfully. Upon the advice of a druggist I purchased a bottle of Chamberlain's Cough Remedy and it benefited him at once. I find it the best cough medicine for children because it is pleasant to take. They do not object to taking it," writes Mrs. Lafayette Turk, Homer City, Pa. This remedy contains no opium or other narcotic, and may be given to a child as confidently as to an adult. Sold by leading Drug Stores.—Advertisement.

AUTOIST DIES FROM INJURIES

Death Results From Collision With Train Near Stockton.

Stockton, Nov. 11.—Henry H. Reich, a solicitor for the Ceres nursery, died at a local hospital here last night as a result of injuries received Saturday when a Tidewater Southern electric train hit his automobile as he was attempting to cross the tracks in front of the train near Eacelon. He leaves a brother and sister living in Woodland.

Martinez, Nov. 11.—Hugh P. Hughes, who confessed to thefts of over $5000 in bullion, which he restored to the Selby smelter where he was employed, entered his plea of guilty yesterday, and was sentenced to three years and six months in Folsom prison. Sentence was suspended, however, and he was placed on probation.

San Rafael, Nov. 11.—Charles Eastman, San Francisco motorcycle policeman, running without lights late last night, drove his motorcycle into a horse and buggy driven by Father Moynahan of San Francisco and was seriously injured. Father Moynahan was uninjured, although his rig was demolished and the horse which he was driving was killed outright. Eastman was taken to a Ross hospital.

Crockett, Nov. 11.—The plant of the California-Hawaiian sugar refining company, one of the largest cane sugar refineries in the west, was closed down yesterday. Notices were posted in all the buildings of the company, which is the largest institution in Crockett and which employs about 500 men.

It is explained by management that the suspension of operation is caused by the necessity for cleaning and renovating the plant, and that this is a yearly necessity.

LIST OF CONGRESS IS OFFICIALLY COMPILED

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—An official list of Representatives-elect to the next Congress was completed yesterday by South Trimble, clerk of the House of Representatives, and sent to the public printer. The complete list, not finally verified, but printed for information of Congress, gives:

Democrats, 222. Republicans, 193. Progressives, 7. Independent, 1. Socialist, 1. Total, 425.

WASHINGTON, Nov. 11.—Headquarters officials of the National Rifle Association of America were at work today on arrangements for the four national rifle championship competitions to take place during the winter. Teams competing in the civilian club championship have been divided into classes, the twelve clubs that led in the 1913 competitions being designated class A. Western clubs will start their matches the first of December and the eastern clubs the week following.

How to Peel Off a Weatherbeaten Face

It's really a simple matter to renovate a face soiled by dirt, wind or cold. Ordinary mercurized wax, used like cold cream, will transform the worst old complexion into one of snowy whiteness and velvety softness. It literally peels off the outer veil of surface skin, but so gently, gradually, there's no discomfort. The worst skin comes off, not in patches, but evenly, leaving no particles, leaving no evidence of the treatment. The younger, healthier under-skin forming the new complexion is one of sparkling loveliness. One ounce of mercurized wax, if he had at any drug store, is enough to remove any coarse, cracked, pimply, freckled, faded or yellow skin. Apply before retiring, washing it off morning.

Many skins wrinkle easily with overwind that blows. An excellent wrinkle-remover, because it tightens the skin and strengthens relaxed muscles, is a wash lotion made as follows: Powdered savatone, 1 oz., dissolved in witch hazel, one-half pint. This gives immediate results.—Adv.

STATE RECEIVER GIVEN SUPERIOR AUTHORITY

SAN ANTONIO, Tex., Nov. 11.—Judge Mayner, in the United States Court yesterday, ruled that the receiver appointed by the state court in the case of the San Antonio Land and Irrigation Company has full authority over the property, comprising 60,000 acres of land along the Medina river, in Medina and Frio counties. This is the parent company of the Medina Valley Irrigation Company, controlling the $10,000,000 Medina dam.

The Federal court, in deciding that the state receiver has jurisdiction instead of the receiver appointed by the Federal court, also ruled that should the Federal court in New York name a receiver in the bankruptcy proceedings this receiver must confer with the Texas receiver in the handling of the property.

The Empire Trust Company of New York recently filed a petition asking that the company be declared bankrupt.

STUDENT ARRESTED ON MANSLAUGHTER CHARGE

BOSTON, Nov. 11.—Raymond C. Lowe, of San Diego, Cal., a student at the Massachusetts Institute of Technology, was arrested last night, charged with manslaughter. The charge resulted from the death of a child, who was run over by Lowe's automobile recently.
